

CONSULTANT'S PROFILE

Isaac Peter is the CEO and principle consultant of People Performance, a people and organisational development company.

Prior to consulting, he gained diverse experience in manufacturing, charity, training and entrepreneurship. His experience gained over more than 20 years have given him the advantage in integrating people and organisation solution in a sustainable way. He specialises in culture, leadership and team development.

His solutions are customised to his clients need based on their unique culture and challenges. He has worked with MNC is transforming their leadership culture as well as small and medium enterprises (SME) in improving their workplace productivity and processes.

As an experienced consultant, he designs practical solutions combined with an intimate understanding of the Malaysian culture with measurable results for his clients.

As a leadership facilitator, his strength is in listening to both the said and unsaid needs of his learners, guide them through their challenges and offer practical solutions gleaned from the various experience he gained.

Among notable clients he has worked with are Changi Airport, Shangri-la hotel Singapore, Mandarin Oriental hotel, INSEAD, OCBC, CitiBank, CIMB, Caterpillar, Ministry of Manpower, Central Provision Fund (CPF), VITAL, EcoWorld, MNRB, American Express, EVYAP Malaysia, Munchies, , Matsushita, MISC Berhad, T-Systems GmbH and Giesecke & Devrient.

Academically he possesses a master in business administration (MBA) from Murdoch University (Australia), an engineering degree (B. Eng) from Universiti Teknologi Malaysia (Malaysia), a diploma in business administration for not-for-profit organisation from Ngee Ann Polytechnic (Singapore) and an advanced certificate in training and assessment (ACTA) (Singapore).

He possesses the following professional certification; a certified Design Thinking Facilitator, a certified behavioural profiler, a certified Motivational Maps TM administrator, a Master NLP Practitioner, a certified Barrett culture consultant, a HRDF-certified trainer and a master trainer for Malaysia's Financial Accreditation Agency.

Testimonial

"I would recommend Isaac to any organization who wants to build a strong leadership culture and effective development programme."

HR Director, EVYAP Sabun Malaysia Sdn Bhd

"The workshop was well conducted. I like the role play, it felt real and relates to my work. He facilitates it very professionally"

Manager, SP Services